

CAB DRIVER [C] and [D] Carson Parks Sung by the Mills Brothers

INTRO [C] // // // [C] // // //

Cab [C] Driver, drive by Marys [G] place
[G] I just want, a chance to see her [C] face
Don't stop the [C7] meter let it [F] race
Cab [G] Driver, drive by Mary's [C] place

Cab [C] Driver, once more round the [G] block
[G] Never mind, the ticking . . of the [C] clock
I only wish we [C7] could have had a [F] talk
Cab [G] Driver, once more round the [C] block

Cab [C] Driver, once more down the [G] street
[G] There's the little place, we used to [C] eat
That's where I laid my [C7] future at her [F] feet
Cab [G] Driver, once more down the [C] street

Key Change [D] // // // [D] // // //

Cab [D] Driver, wait here by the [A] door
[A] Perhaps, I'll hold her in my arms once [D] more
And then things will be just [D7alt] like they were [G] before
Cab [A] Driver, wait here by the [D] door

Cab [D] Driver, better take me [A7] home
[A7] I guess that I . . . was meant to be a- [D] alone
I hope God sends me a [D7alt] loved one of my [G] own
Cab [A7] Driver, better take me [D] home

Cab [A7] Driver, better take me [D] home
Cab [A7] Driver, better take me [D] home [D]stop
